ADVENIRE, the Latin from which Advent is derived, translates “to arrive” or “come to.” Advent recalls God’s first coming in Christ’s birth and looks toward his return at the end of time, while we prepare to celebrate that first coming on Christmas. Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the Calendar (UNLY), 39 notes that: Advent has a twofold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ’s Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight.
